About the Author

Annes An

When young, she wanted a career that allowed her to travel freely around the world. She wrote down her dreams on a blank note card, which she carried in her wallet as a constant reminder of those dreams, A few years later, she accomplished all of her dreams as written in her note cards. Now, what she wants to do is to share with other women, who are seeking to have a little more special experience in their lives, on how her dream cards have changed her life. Perhaps, these cards can change those womenâ€™s lives as well.

She graduated from Illinois State University and majored in Mass Communication. Then she became an anchor and a reporter at the KBC-TV Chicago, where she covered stories on women issues.

The was published in South Korea and became a â€™Best-Sellerâ€™, giving hope and motivation to women. It sold more than 500,000 copies in South Korea. Her books are published in various languages and have captivated the minds and hearts of millions of readers and challenged them to succeed in this world.
